Release # 10-04

22 March 2010

Volunteer Campground Host

Jennings Randolph Lake, W.Va. — Jennings Randolph Lake has an opening available for a Volunteer Campground Host for the 2010 spring and summer season. An electric site will be provided for the host during this visitor season. The Volunteer Host is responsible for providing their own camper and equipment.

The Volunteer Host will be responsible for a twenty hour light duty work week. Scheduled work hours will be flexible and consist of foot patrols in the campground, weekly hiking trail inspections, light maintenance duties, disseminating visitor information, answering questions, presenting an occasional evening program, and similar duties assigned by the ranger staff.

The Volunteer Host will be required to maintain their assigned campsite in a neat and orderly manner at all times. A clothes washer and dryer is available for Park Attendant and Park Host use. Please contact the writer by either telephone or electronic mail for more specific details and/or any questions.

For more information, contact Park Ranger Norm Dennis at (304) 355-2346 or (301) 359-3861, Monday through Friday between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. or by e-mail at norm.dennis@usace.army.mil
